FUNERAL OF ERNEST TONKIN

Funeral services for Ernest Tonkin, 39, of Durham, who died suddenly in Amesbury, Mass., were held Friday afternoon at the Glidden and Wiggin Funeral Home, where a large number of relatives and friends gathered to pay a final tribute. There was a profusion of floral pieces around the casket.

Rev. Arthur M. Dunstan, rector of St. Thomas Episcopal church, officiated. Burial was in the family lot in the Durham cemetery.

John & Marianna (Gibson) Tonkin

I, John Tonkin make this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills.

I give my son John all the office furniture and books in the office and the walnut bed stead and the equivalent of one fourth of the remaining property.

I give my Daughter Elisabeth all the furniture and household goods she may desire and an equivalent of one half of the property.

I give my son, George all the remaining household goods
he may desire and an equivalent of one fourth of the property.
If they wish they make an equitable adjustment of the property.

I appoint the First National Bank of Glassboro with ample authority to dispose of any or all the property.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal the 16th day of December, 1929.

John Tonkin (Seal)

Signed, Sealed, Published and Declared by the above named testator to be his last will and we at the request testator in his presence and the presence of each other at the same time sign our names as witnesses to the will.
